COMMUNITY RADIO TOOLKIT

The Community Radio Toolkit was published by Radio Regen in 2005. Last November saw the launch of its associated website at www.communityradiotoolkit.net. The website offers:

- forums for discussion, debate and support
- shared resources so you don't have to produce all your documents from scratch
- the entire 'Toolkit' handbook, available to download free of charge
- special features, articles and links to useful websites

Please register me on the Community Radio Toolkit website - my email address is:

I will register myself at www.communityradiotoolkit.net/communities

I am already registered

I am not interested, thank you
